Rentals: Subsidized

- Anne Arundel County Housing Choice Voucher (formerly referred to as “Section 8”) portable housing subsidy and Public Housing waiting list. The Housing Choice Voucher program wait list is closed. The Public Housing wait list remains open at this time. More information may be obtained at <http://hcaac.com/wp1/> or by calling 410-222-6205.
- Housing Choice Voucher portable housing subsidy programs in neighboring jurisdictions, if wait lists are open. Residency and employment “preference” or priority ratings typically apply to applicants on wait lists, so this may not be a viable option unless you plan to live or work in the neighboring jurisdiction. Visit the jurisdiction’s Housing Authority website or call their phone number for more information.
- HUD – Veterans Affairs Supportive Housing (VASH) combines Housing Choice Voucher rental assistance for homeless veterans with case management and clinical services provided by the Department of Veterans Affairs (VA). This wait list is open. VA provides these services for participating veterans at VA medical centers (VAMCs) and community-based outreach clinics. HUD-VASH case managers take referrals from all sources – self-referral of the Veteran, referral from community organizations, agencies or private citizens, referral from other VA programs, and referral from HUD-VASH outreach contacts. Most VA programs have a Homeless Program. The HUD VASH Program is one component of Homeless Programs at most VA Medical Centers. More information may be obtained by visiting <https://www.hudexchange.info/programs/hud-vash/hud-vash-eligibility-requirements/> or by calling the VA Medical Center: Perry Point, MD at (410) 996-5245.

- Unit-based housing subsidies are offered at senior/disabled and multifamily communities in Anne Arundel County. Refer to <http://www.mdhousingsearch.org/> All have waiting lists (some lists are closed to new applicants) and many have minimum income requirements.
- Section 811 PRA project-based rental assistance program is expanding throughout Maryland with goal of 300 units, but only eight units are in Anne Arundel County. Waiting list maintained by Maryland Department of Disabilities (MDOD). Head of household must have a disability, be age 18 to 62 at time of leasing, have Medicaid, meet support needs and income criteria. Head of household must be institutionalized, at risk of institutionalized due to current housing situation, moving to independent renting from an Assisted Living or group home setting, or homeless. Must be referred by Medicaid case managers or Center for Independent Living (CIL) staff. More information may be obtained at <http://mdod.maryland.gov/housing/Pages/section811.aspx> or by calling 410-767-3660.
- Weinberg Apartments unit-based housing program is based on grants awarded to developers up-front; in exchange for the building funds, a portion of units must be made available at affordable rent levels for 40 years. Small program; twenty-two units statewide either already leased or in planning/construction phase. Three are in Anne Arundel County. The waitlist is maintained by the Maryland Department of Disabilities. Applicants must have a disability and receive or have applied for SSI/SSDI benefits, be age 18 to 62 at time of leasing, and meet low-income and criminal background check requirements. Must be referred by Medicaid case managers or Center for Independent Living (CIL) staff. More information may be obtained at <http://mdod.maryland.gov/housing/Pages/MPAH.aspx> or by calling 410-636-2274.
- Money Follows the Person (MFP) Bridge Subsidy Program provides short-term (up to 3 years) tenant-based rental assistance while waiting for permanent housing subsidy assistance through a local Housing Choice Voucher or public housing program. Applicants must be transitioning from congregate setting like a nursing facility or State Residential Center, be MFP-eligible and meet low-income requirements. Case managers assist with finding housing and transitioning to the unit. Waiting list maintained by the Maryland Department of Disabilities. Further information may be obtained at <https://mmcp.dhmh.maryland.gov/longtermcare/Pages/Money-Follows-the-Person-Bridge-Subsidy-Program.aspx> or by calling 410-767-3660.
- Supported Housing is run by the Anne Arundel Mental Health Agency. It provides subsidized housing to single individuals with a psychiatric disability. No case management is provided, but residents must be receiving treatment. When a resident has been in Supported Housing for two years without incident, they may receive a Housing Choice Voucher that they can then transfer to a residence outside of Supported Housing. More information may be obtained at http://www.aamentalhealth.org/pr_housing.cfm or by calling the Anne Arundel Mental Health Agency at 410-222-7858.

- Main Street Housing is a non-profit housing development organization providing independent housing opportunities. Primary applicant must be 18 years or older with a psychiatric disability. Minimal case management is provided. There is a minimum income requirement of $500.00 per month. Applicants with a criminal history are considered on a case-by-case basis. More information may be obtained at www.mainstreethousing.org or by calling 410-540-9067.
- Moderately Priced Dwelling Unit (MPDU) program requires developers of new housing in specific zoning districts to rent a portion (generally 6%) of the dwelling units to households of moderate income. Renters should have a yearly income of at least $30,000. MPDUs are interspersed throughout Annapolis and enjoy all the amenities of their communities. Of the entirety of Anne Arundel County, MPDUs currently exist only within the city limits of Annapolis. An individual wishing to purchase a MPDU must fill out an application form available at <https://www.annapolis.gov/DocumentCenter/View/586>. One may request that an application be mailed by calling Arundel Community Development Services, Inc. at 410-222-7600. More information may be obtained at <https://www.annapolis.gov/Faq.aspx?QID=220>.
- Rental Assistance Program (RAP) is a rent subsidy program. Local government administering agencies sign a contract with eligible residents to provide a monthly rental allowance payment for up to 12 months. Local programs may also provide additional services such as housing counseling, credit counseling, individual case management programs, etc. to help the family maintain housing stability. Eligible residents are low-income families who are homeless, in danger of becoming homeless, or in need of emergency housing. Incomes of assisted households cannot exceed 30 percent of the statewide or area median income, whichever is higher. Anne Arundel County Community Action Agency administers the RAP program for the City of Annapolis. For additional information, please call at 410-626-1900, extension 1019.

Residential Provider Settings

- Residential rehabilitation programs (RRP) are available to individuals meeting medical necessity criteria under Maryland’s public behavioral health system. Residential Rehabilitation Program (RRP) provides housing and supportive services to single individuals. The goal of residential rehabilitation is to provide services that will support an individual to transition to independent housing of their choice. Residential Rehabilitation Programs provide staff support around areas of personal needs such as medication monitoring, independent living skills, symptom management, stress management, relapse prevention planning with linkages to employment, education and/or vocational services, crisis prevention and other services that will help with the individual’s recovery. More information may be obtained by visiting http://www.aamentalhealth.org/pr_housing.cfm or by calling the Anne Arundel Mental Health Agency at 410-222-7858.
- DDA-licensed residential program services are available to individuals meeting eligibility and priority status criteria under Maryland’s Developmental Disabilities Administration (DDA) system. More information may be obtained at <http://dda.dhmh.maryland.gov/Pages/home.aspx> or by calling 410-234-8200.
- Project HOME is a program that provides housing to adults who need supervision and assistance with activities of daily living and who are unable to live by themselves. Project Home providers offer care in their own homes to one to four residents who have a disability. Residents are adults who are 18 years of age and older, who have a mental, developmental or physical disability or who are elderly and are unable to live alone. To enroll in Project Home, potential residents must be able to live in a family setting; to take advantage of community resources and program activities; and to maintain or develop the skills they need to live in the least restrictive environment possible. Application can be submitted at the Annapolis Department of Social Services, 80 West Street Annapolis, MD 21401. More information may be obtained by calling the Annapolis Department of Social Services at 410-269-4500 or by visiting <http://dhr.maryland.gov/office-of-adult-services/project-home/>
